

Audio file

1973-10-03 - 05 - Cincinnati Reds met playoff in national league.mp3

Transcript

00:00:07

Curve. Again, redfield. Coming roll back, looking up the softball.

00:00:13

Here comes here. Here comes the on the third base double for Dome. Look out on the field and Claire comes down. It's three to two New York.

00:00:30

Heat rules tried to decoy, get out at second base by hitting his glove.

00:00:37

Has always got it.

00:00:39

But it was what it.

00:00:39

Was.

00:00:40

Here, right. Actually, he was trying to decorate me on his first is that Jared was just standing there. He knew that he could score regardless of.

00:00:47

What?

00:00:47

Happened trying to keep.

00:00:48

Me young from going all the way to the third base, but it didn't work in.

00:00:51

That case, Jen? Well, that's all. And with Miller coming up, we're liable to see Don Gullett coming in. The Mets have gone ahead.

00:01:00

On a double, I'll feel his choice of what's Greece and failed even to plot attack the runner coming into third and then another double by Cleon Jones. None out runners at second and third base, and three to two. The score and the Mets are whooping it up.

00:01:17

And Don Gullett apparently is coming in.

00:01:21

Yella fits very well yesterday.

00:01:24

Hard throwing left-hander.

00:01:26

And we'll give.

00:01:26

You the going out record of Bellingham and jealous as he comes in in the 5th inning. None out three to two New York. Let us take a pause from excited Shay Stadium.